

National Resource Centre for Supplementary Education

This is to certify that

has been recognised as demonstrating the following standards of good practice:

1. There is a well-organised environment in which everyone can work comfortably and has clear expectations of behaviour. The school engages with parents and develops partnerships across the wider community to extend pupils' experience and develop confidence.
2. Teachers know what children have previously learned, have guidelines on what to teach. Classes follow clear programmes of study.
3. There are simple records of what children have successfully learned.
4. There are adequate teaching resources for the teachers and the learners.
5. There is a management committee that meets regularly to ensure that the organisation is achieving its aims, obeys the law and is financial secure.
6. Staff and volunteers, they are safely recruited and there is induction, support, training and supervision to ensure that everyone carries out their role effectively.
7. The organisation ensures that children are safe at all times when they are in the school's care by adopting, implementing and reviewing policies and procedures to protect them, and by carrying out appropriate checks.
8. The organisation manages finance wisely, agreeing an annual budget and monitoring the use of funding regularly throughout the year.
